Food Stamp Program
Determining Household Eligibility and Benefit Level

364.050: Introduction

Upon receipt of a completed application, including all required verification and documentation, the worker must determine if the household is eligible to participate in the Food Stamp Program.

For eligible households, the worker must calculate the household's benefit level. The benefit level is the monthly allotment of food stamps the household is eligible to receive.

364.100: Month of Application

The month of application is the month in which the household applies. Generally, the month of application will be the first month of the household's certification period.

364.110: Initial Applications

For most households submitting an initial application, eligibility will be based on the household's circumstances for the entire month of application.

- (A) If the worker finds a household ineligible for the month of application, but eligible in the following month(s) because of anticipated changes, the same application shall be used to deny benefits for the month of application and to approve benefits for the following month(s). Even though denied for the month of application, the household does not have to reapply to receive benefits for the month(s) following the month of application. The worker shall use the month of ineligibility, however, as the first month of the household's certification period.

Food Stamp Program
Determining Household Eligibility and Benefit Level

- (B) If the worker finds a household eligible for the month of application, but ineligible in the following month(s) because of anticipated changes, the household shall be paid benefits for the month of application even if the allotment is not issued until the following month.
- (C) If the worker finds that an eligible household's allotment for the month of the application is different from the household's allotment in the following month(s) because of anticipated changes, he or she shall vary the household's basis of issuance within the certification period to reflect the anticipated changes, unless the household elects to have its income averaged over the certification period.

364.120: Recertifications

Eligibility for recertifications shall be based on circumstances anticipated for the certification period starting the month after the current certification period expires. If an application for recertification is submitted after the household's certification period has expired, that application shall be considered an initial application and benefits for that month shall be prorated in accordance with Section 364.650.

If the household submits an application for recertification prior to the end of its certification period but is found ineligible for the first month following the end of the certification period, then the first month of any subsequent participation shall be considered an initial month. Conversely, if the household submits an application for recertification prior to the end of its certification period and is found eligible for the first month following the end of the certification period, then that month shall not be an initial month.

Any household that receives a Notice of Food Stamp Termination at the time of certification, as discussed in Section 366.310, shall not be subject to proration for the first month of its new certification period if the deadline for filing an application for recertification falls after the end of their current certification period.

If a household is requested to provide missing verifications by a specified time (at least 10 calendar days after the request) that ends after its current certification period, and it complies and is otherwise eligible, it shall not be subject to proration for the first month of its subsequent certification period.

Food Stamp Program
Determining Household Eligibility and Benefit Level

364.200: Determining Assets

The household's assets at the time of the initial interview shall be used to determine the household's eligibility. (See 106 CMR 363.000 through 363.150).

364.300: Determining Income

All income received or anticipated to be received during the certification period must be considered when determining the household's eligibility and benefit level. The worker shall determine the household's monthly countable income.

364.310: Income Anticipated in the Certification Period

To determine a household's eligibility and benefit level, the worker shall take into account the income already received by the household during the certification period and any anticipated income the household and the worker are reasonably certain will be received during the remainder of the certification period. If the amount of income that will be received or when it will be received is uncertain, that portion of the household's income that is uncertain shall not be counted by the worker. For example, a household anticipating income from a new source, such as a new job or a recent application for public assistance benefits may be uncertain as to the timing and amount of the initial payment. These monies shall not be anticipated by the worker as countable income unless there is reasonable certainty of the amount of the payment and the month in which payment will be received. If the exact amount of the income is not known, that portion of it which is anticipated with reasonable certainty is considered income. Where receipt of income is reasonably certain but the monthly amount may fluctuate, the household may elect to income average.

364.320: Anticipating Income

Income received during the previous four (4) consecutive weeks shall be used as an indicator of anticipated income. If income fluctuates to the extent that a consecutive four (4) week period alone cannot provide an accurate indication of anticipated income, the worker and the household may use a longer period of past time as an indicator of future income.

In no event shall the worker automatically attribute to the house-hold the amounts of any past income, nor shall the worker use past income as an indicator of anticipated income when changes in income have occurred or can be anticipated during the certification period.

Food Stamp Program
Determining Household Eligibility and Benefit Level

(A) Income from Steady Employment

The four (4) consecutive weeks prior to initial certification or prior to the recertification date shall be used as an indication of anticipated income in the month of application and subsequent months, unless:

- (1) the household can verify that a change in income has occurred;
- (2) the worker and the household are reasonably certain that a change in income is anticipated; or
- (3) some other method is used to determine income as described in subsections 364.320 (B) and (C) and 364.340.

(B) Income from Hourly and Piecework Employment

When income is received on an hourly wage or piece work basis, weekly income may fluctuate if the wage earner works less than eight (8) hours some days or is required to work overtime on others. In this case, the worker should consult with the household to determine the "normal" amount of income to be expected as a result of one (1) week's work. This amount should be used to determine monthly income.

(C) Income from Seasonal Employment

In cases where the household's income is seasonal, the worker may find it more appropriate to use the income from the most recent earning season comparable to the certification period, rather than the four (4) consecutive weeks prior to the application/ recertification date as an indicator of anticipated income. The worker shall exercise particular caution in using income from a past season as an indicator of income for the certification period. In many cases of seasonally fluctuating income, the income also fluctuates from one season in one year to the same season in the next year.

364.330: Income Counted in the Month Received

Income anticipated during the certification period shall be counted as income only in the month it is expected to be received, unless the income is averaged. Nonrecurring lump sum payments are counted as an asset starting in the month received and not counted as income.

Food Stamp Program
Determining Household Eligibility and Benefit Level

364.340: Income Averaging

In some cases income averaging is required. In other cases, the household may elect to average fluctuating income over the certification period. In any destitute household case, income shall not be averaged. Whenever a full month's income is anticipated but is received on a weekly or biweekly basis, the worker shall convert the income to a monthly amount by multiplying weekly amounts by $4 \frac{1}{3}$ or by 4.333 and biweekly amounts by 2.167.

(A) Mandatory Income Averaging

(1) Annual Income in Shorter Period

Households that derive their annual income in a period of time shorter than one year shall have their income averaged over a twelve (12) month period, provided the income is not received on an hourly or piecework basis. These households may include school employees, share croppers, farmers and other self-employed households, but not migrant or seasonal farm workers. For a detailed discussion of self-employed households, see 106 CMR 365.900.

- (2) Educational Grants, etc. Households receiving scholarships, deferred education loans, or other educational grants shall have such income, after exclusions, averaged over the period for which it was provided. See 106 CMR 365.700 for a detailed discussion of student households.

Food Stamp Program
Determining Household Eligibility and Benefit Level

- (B) Optional Income Averaging. Households, except destitute households, may choose to have their income averaged over the certification period. The number of months used to arrive at the average monthly income need not be the same as the number of months in the certification period. For example, if fluctuating income over the previous three months is known and the worker is reasonably certain that this income is representative of the fluctuations anticipated in the coming months, the income from the three known months may be averaged over a certification period of longer than three months.
- (C) Assistance Payments. Households receiving state or federal assistance payments, such as TAFDC, AFDC, EAEDC, SSI, or Social Security payments, on a recurring, monthly basis shall not have their monthly income from these sources varied merely because mailing cycles may cause two payments to be received in one month and none in the next month.
- (D) Withheld Wages. Wages held at the request of the employee shall be considered income to the household in the month the wages would otherwise have been paid by the employer. However, wages held by the employer as a general practice, even if in violation of law, shall not be counted as income to the household, unless the household anticipates that it will ask for and receive an advance, or the household anticipates that it will receive income from previously held wages that were not previously counted as income by the worker. When reasonably anticipated, advances on wages shall count as income in the month received.

364.350: Determining Income for Special Situation Households

Determining income for PA households, categorically eligible households, student households, striker households, households with income from self-employment and other households with special circumstances are discussed in 106 CMR 365.000 et seq.

364.360 Child Support Income Counted in the Month After Receipt

Households with a TAFDC/AFDC/RRP household member that receive a child support payment of up to $50 monthly as a TAFDC or AFDC Related Benefit from the Child Support Enforcement Unit (106 CMR 305.900), shall have the amount used in the calculation of benefits for the month after receipt.

364.370: Determining Eligibility Based on Gross Income

Assistance units must meet the gross income standard, except for assistance units containing elderly or disabled member(s) meeting the requirements of 106 CMR 361.210 or public assistance categorically eligible assistance units, in accordance with 106 CMR 365.180. FS-Only TANF Services categorically eligible assistance units must meet the gross income standard at 106 CMR364.976.

The assistance unit's gross income minus the exclusions listed in 106 CMR 363.230 must be compared to the appropriate maximum gross monthly income standard for the assistance unit size in accordance with 106 CMR 364.950 and 106 CMR 364.976. If this countable gross income is greater than the standard, the assistance unit is ineligible. If the countable gross income is equal to or less than the standard, the assistance unit's net income eligibility must be determined in accordance with 106 CMR 364.550.

Net income in accordance with 106 CMR 364.550 is the sole basis of eligibility for assistance units with an elderly or disabled member meeting the requirements of 106 CMR 361.210 that are not categorically eligible (see 106 CMR 365.180).

364.400: Determining Deductions

There are seven deductions from income. No other deductions are allowed.

(A) Standard Deduction

The standard deduction varies according to AU size. No AU receives more than the standard deduction for a AU size of six. This deduction is adjusted each year for cost-of-living increases.

Assistance Unit Size	Standard Deduction
1	$ 134.00
2	134.00
3	134.00
4	134.00
5	149.00
6 or greater	171.00

(B) Earned Income Deduction

Twenty percent of gross monthly earned income is allowed as a deduction. No additional deduction(s) from earned income shall be made. Excluded earned income and any portion of income earned under a wage supplementation or support program attributable to public assistance shall not be allowed this deduction.

This deduction shall not be allowed in determining an overissuance if the assistance unit fails to report earned income in a timely manner.

(C) Excess Medical Deduction

Medical expense(s) in excess of $35 per month are allowed as a deduction when incurred by an elderly or disabled assistance unit member meeting one of the requirements of 106 CMR 361.210. No spouses or other assistance unit members are eligible for this deduction. Special diets are not an allowable medical expense. Only the following are allowable medical expenses.

- (1) Medical and dental care, including psychotherapy and rehabilitation services provided by a licensed practitioner or other qualified health professional.
- (2) Hospitalization (inpatient or outpatient) or nursing home care in a State recognized facility and nursing care. Payments made by the assistance unit for an individual who was a food stamp assistance unit member immediately before entering a hospital or nursing home are an allowable deduction under this provision.
- (3) Prescription drugs when prescribed by a licensed practitioner; over-the-counter medical medication, including insulin, when approved by a licensed practitioner or other qualified health professional; and the cost of medical supplies, sickroom equipment (including rental) or other prescribed equipment.
- (4) Health and hospitalization insurance policy premiums. The premiums for health and accident policies such as those payable in lump sum settlements for death or dismemberment and the premiums for income maintenance policies such as those that continue mortgage and loan payments while the beneficiary is disabled are not deductible.
- (5) Medicare premiums.
- (6) Any cost-sharing or spend-down expenses incurred by Medicaid recipients.
- (7) Dentures, hearing aids and prosthetics.
- (8) Securing and maintaining a seeing eye dog or hearing dog including the cost of dog food and veterinarian bills.
- (9) Eye glasses prescribed by a physician skilled in eye disease or by an optometrist.
- (10) Reasonable cost of transportation and lodging to obtain medical treatment or services.
- (11) Maintaining an attendant, homemaker, home health aide, housekeeper or child care services which are necessary due to age, infirmity, or illness. When these services qualify as either a medical deduction or a dependent care deduction, the expense is treated as a medical deduction. In addition to the actual expense of these services, an amount equal to a one-person food stamp benefit allotment shall be deducted if the assistance unit furnishes a majority of meals to the person providing the service. The allotment for this meal-related deduction is that in effect at the time the assistance unit is given the deduction. If the allotment amount changes during a certification period, the total deduction amount must be updated to reflect the new allotment amount no later than the assistance unit's next scheduled recertification.

Food Stamp Program

Determining Household Eligibility and Benefit Level
(2 of 5)

Rev. 4/2003

(D) Dependent Care Deduction

The actual costs of the care of a child or other dependent necessary for an assistance unit member to accept or continue employment, comply with the Food Stamp Employment & Training Program (FS/ET) requirements at 106 CMR 362.310, or to attend training or education preparatory to employment are deductible. See 106 CMR 364.410. This deduction shall not exceed $200 per month for each child under age two and $175 per month for all other dependents.

(E) Child Support Deduction

Legally obligated child support payments paid by an assistance unit member to or for a non-assistance unit member, which are verified in accordance with 106 CMR 361.610(J), are allowed as a deduction. Assistance units that fail or refuse to obtain necessary verification of their legal obligation or of their child support payments shall have their eligibility and benefit level determined without consideration of a child support deduction.

Legally obligated child support payments paid by an assistance unit member to a third party (e.g., a landlord or utility company) on behalf of the non-assistance unit member in accordance with the support order shall be included as part of the child support deduction. Payments that are made by the assistance unit to obtain health insurance for the child(ren) shall also be included as part of the child support deduction.

The Department shall allow a deduction for amounts paid toward arrearage, even for assistance units without a payment history.

Alimony payments made to or for a non-assistance unit member shall not be included in the child support deduction.

(F) Homeless Shelter/Utility Deduction

- (1) Assistance units in which all members are homeless individuals and reside in a homeless facility (see 106 CMR 360.030 (C)) that incur or reasonably expect to incur any shelter and/or utility expenses during a month shall be eligible for a $143 per month homeless shelter/utility deduction.

Assistance units in which all members are homeless individuals and reside in the home of another (see 106 CMR 360.030 (C)) that incur or reasonably expect to incur any shelter and/or utility expenses during a month shall be eligible for a $143 per month homeless shelter/utility deduction.

Assistance units that receive the $143 homeless shelter/utility deduction are not entitled to either the shelter deduction at 364.400 (E) or the Standard Utility Allowance at 364.400 (F) since the homeless shelter/utility deduction already includes both shelter and utility costs.

- (2) Assistance units in which all members are homeless individuals and reside in the home of another (see 106 CMR 360.030 (C)) that verify shelter and/or utility expenses greater than $143 per month shall be eligible for the shelter deduction and the applicable Standard Utility Allowance.

(G) Shelter Deduction

A deduction is allowed for monthly shelter expenses and utility costs in excess of 50 percent of the assistance unit's income after all of the above deductions have been allowed. The shelter deduction shall not exceed $378 per month. This limit on the shelter deduction amount does not apply if the assistance unit contains a member who is elderly or disabled in accordance with 106 CMR 361.210.

(1) Shelter Expenses:

- (a) Continuing charges for the shelter occupied by the assistance unit, including rent, mortgage, or other continuing charges leading to the ownership of shelter, such as loan repayments for the purchase of a mobile home, including interest on such payments or condominium fees.
- (b) Property taxes, state and local assessments, and insurance on the structure itself, but not the separate expense of insuring furniture or personal belongings.
- (c) The above shelter expenses for a home not actually occupied by the assistance unit because of employment or training away from home, illness, or abandonment of the home due to natural disaster or casualty loss.

Shelter expenses for a vacated home are included in the shelter deduction if the assistance unit intends to return to the home; the current occupants of the home, if any, are not claiming a shelter deduction for food stamp purposes; and the home is not leased or rented during the absence of the assistance unit.

- (d) One-time deposits shall not be included as shelter costs.
- (e) Charges for repair of a home substantially damaged in a natural disaster such as fire or flood are allowed as a shelter deduction unless the repair charge has been or will be reimbursed by private or public relief agencies, insurance companies or any other source.

(2) Utility Costs:

An assistance unit that incurs utility costs separately and apart from its rent or mortgage is eligible for a utility allowance. A standard utility allowance (SUA) will be used in calculating the Shelter Deduction for the assistance unit, even in the event that actual expenses exceed the mandated amount. The applicable SUA will be determined based on the type of utility costs incurred by the assistance unit. There are three SUAs. The SUA amounts are listed in 106 CMR 364.945.

Only one of the following SUAs applies to any assistance unit based on the type of utility costs incurred by the assistance unit as described below:

(a) Heating/Cooling Standard Utility Allowance

The heating standard utility allowance applies to an assistance unit that incurs heating or cooling costs separate and apart from its rent or mortgage and that is billed for heating or cooling costs on a regular basis. The Heating/Cooling SUA includes the following expenses: heating, cooling, cooking fuel, electricity, water, sewerage, garbage and trash collection, the basic fee for one telephone and tax, and initial utility installation fee.

An assistance unit living in a public housing unit that has central meters and that charges the assistance unit for excess heating or cooling costs shall be permitted to use this allowance.

An assistance unit that incurs electricity costs to power an electric blower that distributes heat or cooling from an oil or gas furnace shall not be permitted to use this allowance.

Recipients of energy assistance payments made under the LIHEAA of 1981 are entitled to use of the heating standard utility allowance because they are deemed to have incurred out-of-pocket energy expenses.

An assistance unit that receives indirect energy assistance payments, made under a program other than LIHEAA, but continues to incur out-of-pocket heating expenses during any month covered by the certification period, is still eligible to use the heating standard utility allowance. An assistance unit that receives energy assistance payments (other than LIHEAA) shall have its energy assistance payment(s) prorated over the entire heating season that the payment is intended to cover to determine whether the assistance unit incurs any out-of-pocket heating expenses.

(b) Nonheating Standard Utility Allowance

The Nonheating Standard Utility Allowance applies to an assistance unit that does not qualify for the the Heating/Cooling SUA because it incurs no heating or cooling costs separate and apart from its rent or mortgage. The Nonheating SUA includes the following expenses: cooking fuel, electricity, water, sewerage, garbage and trash collection, the basic fee for one telephone and tax and initial utility installation fee.

(c) Telephone Standard Utility Allowance

The Telephone Standard Utility Allowance applies to an assistance unit that incurs a telephone cost but none of the following costs separate and apart from its rent or mortgage: heating or cooling, cooking fuel, electricity, water, sewerage, garbage and trash collection. The telephone SUA includes the basic fee for one telephone and tax, and initial utility installation fee.

(3) Treatment of the Standard Utility Allowance in Shared Living Situations

If an assistance unit lives with another assistance unit or assistance units, each assistance unit which contributes to utility costs shall be entitled to the full applicable SUA.

Food Stamp Program
Determining Household Eligibility and Benefit Level

364.410: Determining Deductible Expenses

The worker determines which claimed expenses are deductible and their amounts.

(A) Limitations on Deductible Expenses

The allowable expenses for medical care, dependent care, shelter and child support are described in 106 CMR 364.400. Education expenses and the cost of doing business for the self-employed are income exclusions and are to be handled in accordance with 106 CMR 363.230(D) (student households) and 106 CMR 363.230(J) (self-employed households).

(B) Types of Nondeductible Expenses

- (1) No claimed expense is an allowable deduction unless the household makes a money payment for the service and the service is provided by someone outside the food stamp household.
- (2) Any expense covered by a reimbursement or vendor payment which is excluded from income, except energy assistance vendor payments made under the Low Income Home Energy Assistance Act (LIHEAA), is not an allowable deduction. For example, if a household pays no rent because an excluded vendor payment is made to the landlord on behalf of the household, the rent expense is not an allowable shelter deduction. A utility expense which is reimbursed or paid by an excluded payment including the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) and the Farmers Home Administration (FmHA) utility reimbursements, shall not be deductible.
- (3) A medical expense or that portion of a medical expense for which the applicant or recipient receives reimbursement is not an allowable medical deduction. For example, if a third-party insurer such as Medicare reimburses a recipient for 80 percent of the billed expense, only the nonreimbursable 20 percent of the total medical expense is part of the household's medical deduction. If the household reports an allowable medical expense at the time of certification but cannot then provide verification, and if the amount of the expense cannot be reasonably anticipated based on available information about the recipient's medical condition and public or private insurance coverage, the household shall have the non-reimbursable portion of the medical expense considered when the amount of the expense or portion is verified.
- (4) A child-care expense which is reimbursed or paid for by the Jobs Opportunity and Basic Skills Training (JOBS) under Title IV-F of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 681) or the Transitional Child Care (TCC) program shall not be deductible.

Food Stamp Program
Determining Household Eligibility and Benefit Level

(C) Households With Disqualified Nonhousehold Members

Deductible expenses of households with disqualified nonhousehold members shall be determined in accordance with 106 CMR 365.500.

(D) Budgeting Child Support Payments

Child Support payments shall be budgeted prospectively in the following manner.

For households with a history of three or more months of paying child support, average at least three months' payments (including arrearages) taking into account any change in the legal obligation, and use this average as the household's support deduction. For households with either no child support payment history or less than a three-month child support payment history, estimate the anticipated payments (excluding arrearages) and use this estimate as the household's support deduction.

364.420: Anticipating Expenses

The worker must make a reasonable prediction of the amount the household expects to be billed during the certification period for allowable medical, dependent care, and shelter expenses. Anticipation of the expense is based on the most recent month's bills unless the household is reasonably certain a change will occur. When the household is claiming actual utility expenses, the worker may anticipate changes during the certification period based on last year's bills from the same period updated by overall price increases. If only the most recent bill is available, utility cost increases or decreases over the months of the certification period may be based on utility company estimates for the type of dwelling and utilities used by the household. The worker shall not average past expenses as a method of anticipating utility expenses for the certification period.

At certification and recertification, the household shall report and verify all medical expenses. The household's monthly medical deduction for the certification period shall be based on information reported and verified by the household, and any anticipated changes in the household's medical expenses that can be reasonably expected to occur during the certification period based on available information about the recipient's medical condition, public or private medical insurance coverage and current verified medical expenses. The household shall not be required to report its medical expenses during the certification period. If the household voluntarily reports a change in medical expenses, the Department shall verify the change in accordance with 106 CMR 366.100 if the change would increase the household's allotment. Verification of the change in medical expenses is required prior to the Department's acting on the change. In the case of a reported change that would decrease the household's allotment, or make the household ineligible, the Department shall act on the change without requiring verification, though verification which is required by 106 CMR 366.100 shall be obtained prior to the household's recertification.

Food Stamp Program

Determining Household Eligibility and Benefit Level

364.430: Expenses Deducted in the Month Due

Except for expenses the assistance unit elects to average, the expense is deducted in the month it is billed or otherwise becomes due, regardless of when the assistance unit intends to pay the expense. For example, rent which is due each month is included in the household's monthly shelter deduction even if the assistance unit does not pay the rent each month.

A particular expense may be deducted only once. Amounts carried forward from past billing periods are not deductible in a subsequent month even if included in the most recent billing or actually paid by the assistance unit in the most recent billing period.

364.440: Averaging Expenses

An assistance unit may elect to average fluctuating or one time deductible expenses instead of taking a deduction in the month the expense is billed or otherwise becomes due.

- (A) One time only expenses, other than medical expenses, are averaged over the entire certification period in which they are billed regardless of when the expense is reported by the assistance unit.
- (B) Expenses billed less often than monthly are averaged forward over the interval between scheduled billings. If there is no scheduled interval between billings, the expense is averaged forward over the period the expense is intended to cover. For example, if a assistance unit receives a single bill in February for a three month supply of fuel oil, the assistance unit may elect to average the deductible amount over the months of February, March and April instead of taking a one time deduction.
- (C) For assistance units certified less than 24 months, one time only medical expenses which are reported during a certification period may be taken as a one time deduction or averaged forward over the remaining months of the certification period. If the assistance unit elects to average the expense, the averaging begins the month the change becomes effective.
- (D) Assistance units certified for 24 months that have one time only medical expenses may:
 - (1) if the expense is incurred during the first 12 months, opt to:
 - a. deduct the expense for one month;
 - b. average the expense over the remainder of the first 12 months; or
 - c. average the expense over the remaining months in the certification period.
 - (2) if the expense is incurred after the 12th month of the certification period, opt to:
 - a. deduct the expense for one month; or
 - b. average the expense over the remaining months in the certification period.
- (E) Expenses billed more often than monthly must be converted to a monthly amount. To convert these expenses to a monthly amount the worker must multiply weekly amounts by $4 \frac{1}{3}$ or 4.333 and bi-weekly amounts by 2.167.

364.450: Verification of Deductible Expenses at Initial Certification

(A) Utility Expenses

Households must be informed of the difference between using the standard utility allowance or the actual utility expenses and when they may switch between the SUA and the actual utility expenses (see Subsection 361.610(C)). Households that claim that actual utility expenses are higher than the standard utility allowance and that using the actual utility expenses would result in an increased benefit level must verify the utility expenses. When the actual utility expenses are not verified in time to meet the 30-day application processing standard, the appropriate standard utility allowance shall be used in determining the household's eligibility and benefit level.

When the actual utility expenses are verified by the household, the household's benefit level shall be recalculated. This recalculation is not considered a change in utility allowance since the household claimed actual expenses at initial certification.

(B) Utility Expenses for Unoccupied Homes

Actual utility expenses for a home that is unoccupied because of employment or training away from the home, illness or abandonment caused by a natural disaster or casualty loss must be verified if use of the expenses claimed by the household would actually result in a deduction. The standard utility allowance cannot be used to determine the household's eligibility or benefit level. Other shelter expenses are verified only if questionable. The worker is not required to assist the household to obtain verification if the verification is from a source outside Massachusetts.

(C) Medical Expenses

The amount of allowable medical expenses, including the amount of reimbursement (e.g., by a third-party insurer), must be verified before the initial certification if use of the expenses would actually result in a deduction. Additional verifications relevant to the claimed medical expenses, such as the allowability of services provided or the eligibility of the person incurring the cost, are not required unless the information provided by the applicant or recipient is questionable (see 106 CMR 361.620).

(D) Other Expenses

Other deductible expenses are verified prior to initial certification only when questionable and use of the expense claimed by the household would actually result in a deduction.

If a deductible expense must be verified, but obtaining the verification would delay the household's certification, the worker must inform the household that it may elect to be certified without receiving a deduction for the claimed but unverified expense. If the household subsequently provides the missing verification the worker shall treat the information as a reported change and provide increased benefits, if any, in accordance with the timeliness standards for reported changes. The household is not entitled to lost benefits unless the expense could not be verified within the 30-day processing standard because the worker failed to allow the household at least 10 days from the date of the initial request to provide the verification or because the worker failed to provide the household assistance when required. Households ineligible because a claimed but unverified expense is disallowed must be sent a Notice of Pending/Denial on the 30th day following the date of application.

364.500: Determining Net Income

The net monthly income of destitute (migrant) households is calculated in accordance with the provisions of 106 CMR 365.810.

The following steps lead to the determination of net monthly income for all other households. Round down each income and allotment calculation that ends in 1 through 49 cents and round up each calculation that ends in 50 through 99 cents.

(A) Total Gross Earned Income

To determine gross monthly earned income, add the gross monthly income earned by all household members (including self-employment income) minus income exclusions. Net losses from a self-employed farmer shall be offset in accordance with 106 CMR 365.970(C).

Food Stamp Program

Determining Household Eligibility and Benefit Level

(B) Earned Income Deduction

Multiply the gross earned income by 80 percent to determine monthly earned income.

(C) Unearned Income

Add the total monthly unearned income of all assistance unit members, minus income exclusions, to the net monthly earned income.

(D) Standard Deduction

Subtract the standard deduction of $134.

(E) Medical Expenses

Total the allowable medical expenses, less reimbursements (e.g., by a third-party insurer) for those assistance unit members who meet one of the requirements of 106 CMR 361.210. If these costs exceed $35 per month, go to the next step. If these costs are $35 or less, go to (G), below.

(F) Medical Deduction

Subtract that portion of the medical expenses that exceeds $35 per month.

(G) Dependent Care Deduction

Subtract monthly dependent care expenses, if any, up to $200 for each child under age two and $175 for all other dependents. See 106 CMR 364.400(D) and 364.410.

(H) Allowable Child Support Payments

Subtract allowable monthly child support payments.

(I) Allowable Homeless Shelter/Utility Deduction

Subtract the allowable homeless shelter/utility deduction, if applicable.

(J) Excess Shelter Expense

Total the allowable shelter expenses, unless a homeless shelter deduction was provided. Subtract 50 percent of the assistance unit's preliminary adjusted net income (monthly income after all the above deductions have been subtracted) from the total shelter expenses. The remaining amount, if any, is the excess shelter expense. If there is no excess shelter expense, the assistance unit's net monthly income has been determined. If there is excess shelter expense, go to the next step.

(K) Shelter Deduction

Subtract the full amount of the excess shelter expense if the assistance unit contains an elderly or disabled member who meets one of the requirements of 106 CMR 361.210. For all other assistance units, subtract the excess shelter expense up to the maximum deduction amount. The maximum deduction amount for shelter is $378 per month. The assistance unit's net monthly income has been determined.

364.550: Determining Eligibility Based on Net Income

All assistance units must meet the net income standard, except for categorically eligible assistance units, in accordance with 106 CMR 365.180.

Assistance units that contain an elderly or disabled member meeting the requirements of 106 CMR 361.210 must have their income eligibility based solely on net income standards.

To determine eligibility with regard to net income standards, the assistance unit's net income must be compared to the Maximum Allowable Monthly Net Income Standards for the appropriate assistance unit size in accordance with 106 CMR 364.970. If the net income is greater than the standard, the assistance unit is ineligible. If the net income is equal to or less than the standard, the assistance unit is eligible with regard to net income.

364.600: Determining the Benefit Level

Once an assistance unit has been determined eligible for the Food Stamp Program considering both nonfinancial and financial eligibility standards, the worker must determine the assistance unit's benefit level or monthly allotment.

(A) Assistance Unit Size - One to Eight

Refer to 106 CMR 364.980: Food Stamp Program Issuance Tables, to find the monthly allotment based on the assistance unit's monthly net income (including cents) and assistance unit size. The minimum monthly allotment for one-person and two-person assistance units (noncategorically eligible assistance units whose income is within the net income standards and all categorically eligible assistance units) is $10.

Categorically eligible assistance units with three or more members who do not qualify for a benefit because their income exceeds the level at which benefits are issued cannot be denied. These assistance units must be suspended, in accordance with 106 CMR 365.180.

(B) Assistance Unit Size - Over Eight

- (1) Determine the maximum allotment for the assistance unit size by adding $106 for each person in excess of eight to the maximum allotment for an eight-person assistance unit.
- (2) Determine the assistance unit's monthly net income in accordance with 106 CMR 364.500.
- (3) Multiply the assistance unit's monthly net income (including cents) by 30 percent. Drop any digits beyond the second decimal place. If the result is not whole dollars, round the result up to the next whole dollar.
- (4) Subtract this 30 percent amount from the maximum allotment for the assistance unit size. The resulting amount is the assistance unit's monthly allotment, except when the calculated amount is zero or less, the assistance unit is ineligible for benefits since its net income exceeds the level at which benefits are issued.

- (C) For households containing both federal Food Stamp Program (FSP) members and legal noncitizens ineligible for federal food stamp benefits, the Department will:
- (1) Step One: Calculate food stamp benefits using all Assistance Unit (AU) members, all income and full deductions to determine the maximum food stamp benefits the AU would be entitled to if all members were federally-eligible.
 - (2) Step Two: Calculate the food stamp benefits for FSP members excluding the income and deductions of legal noncitizens ineligible for FSP benefits.
 - (3) Step Three: Compare the results from Step One and Step Two.
 - (a) If the Step Two amount exceeds or is equal to the Step One amount, the Department will pay the Step One amount as the FSP benefit.
 - (b) If the Step Two amount is less than the Step One amount, the Department will pay the Step Two amount as the FSP benefit.

364.650: Prorating Initial Month's Benefits

Food stamp benefits for an assistance unit's initial month shall be prorated.

An initial month is the first month for which an assistance unit is certified to participate in the Food Stamp Program following any period of time during which the assistance unit was not certified for participation, except for migrant and seasonal farmworker assistance units.

For migrant and seasonal farmworker assistance units, an initial month is the first month for which an assistance unit is certified to participate in the Food Stamp Program following any period of more than one month during which the assistance unit was not certified to participate. A migrant or seasonal farmworker assistance unit that has participated within the month before application is entitled to a full month's benefits.

Assistance units which apply for initial benefits after the 15th day of the month and are determined eligible for expedited food stamp benefits in accordance with 106 CMR 365.800 et seq. must be issued a combined allotment. A combined allotment includes the initial month's prorated benefits plus the second month's full allotment. Combined allotments must be issued within the seven-day expedited service time frame.

Proration is the issuance of that portion of an assistance unit's monthly food stamp benefit, as calculated in accordance with 106 CMR 364.600, which corresponds to the period of time from the date of application to the end of the month.

For an assistance unit with a monthly allotment of $400 or less, the initial month's allotment is determined by referring to 106 CMR 364.990. For an assistance unit with a monthly allotment greater than $400, the initial month's allotment is calculated as follows:

- (A) Count the number of days from the first day of the assistance unit's cyclical month through the date of application, inclusive, to determine the day of the cyclical month. If the day of the cyclical month is 31, use the number 30 instead of 31. Subtract the day of the cyclical month from 31.

Multiply the result by the assistance unit's monthly allotment. Divide the result of this by 30.

- (B) If the result of (A) above is not a whole dollar, round the result down to the next whole dollar by dropping cents.
- (C) If the result of (B) above, is less than $10, no benefits shall be issued for the initial month.

364.700: Assigning Certification Periods

Definite periods of time are established within which households are eligible to receive benefits. At the expiration of the certification period, benefits will be terminated without the right to a pretermination hearing for any household that fails, without good cause, to timely comply with its responsibilities for recertification (see 106 CMR 366.330).

(A) Conformance with Cyclical Months

Certification periods shall conform to cyclical months. At initial application, the first month in the certification period is generally the month of application, even if the household's eligibility is not determined until a subsequent month.

(B) Length of Certification Periods

The certification period shall not exceed 12 months, except that the certification period may be up to 24 months if all adult household members are elderly or disabled in accordance with 106 CMR 361.210. The Department must have at least one contact with each certified household every 12 months.

364.710: Household Certification Periods

Households shall be assigned certification periods based on the predictability of change in the household circumstances.

364.800: Notification Requirements

The Department uses certain standard notification letters. These letters shall be used by all Department staff. No other notification letters may be used in place of or in addition to the letters described below.

364.810: Notice of Eligibility

If the initial allotment contains benefits for both the month of application and the current month's benefits, the notice shall explain that the initial allotment includes more than one month's benefits, and shall indicate the allotment amount for the remainder of the certification period.
- (B) The notice shall advise PA households receiving food stamp benefits pending the approval of the PA grant that food stamp benefits will be decreased upon receipt of the PA grant.
- (C) The beginning and ending months of the certification period. For households certified one or two months, the Notice of Eligibility shall be combined with the Notice of Recertification. For households certified 3 months or longer the notice shall include a reminder of the need to reapply for continued certification at the end of the certification period. For PA households the notice shall state that the household's certification period will expire the month after the next PA redetermination or in 1 year, which ever occurs first.
- (D) The notice shall also advise the household of its rights to a fair hearing, the telephone number of the food stamp office, and the name of the person to contact for additional information.
- (E) The notice shall advise the household if there is an individual or organization available that provides free legal representation and the notice shall also advise the household of the availability of the services.
- (F) The Department may include in the notice a reminder of the households' obligation to report changes in circumstance, or other information which would be useful to the household.
- (G) The notice shall inform households whose application is approved on an expedited basis without verification that the household must provide the verification which was waived, and the consequences of the household's failure to produce this verification.

364.820: Notice of Pending/Denial

A Notice of Pending/Denial shall be sent to households when a household's application is incomplete because some action by the worker or the household or both is necessary to complete the application process or when a household is determined ineligible for food stamp benefits. The Notice of Pending/Denial shall contain the following information.

- (A) If some action by the worker is necessary to complete the application, the notice will inform the household that its application has not been completed and is being processed.

- (C) If some action by both the household and the worker is necessary to complete the application, the notice will inform the household that its application has not been completed and what action the household must take before the application can be completed. The notice will also inform the household that if the action is not taken within 60 days of the date of application, food stamp benefits will be denied with no further notice to the household.
- (D) For households found ineligible the notice will contain the basis for the denial.
- (E) The household's right to request a fair hearing, the telephone number of the food stamp office, and if possible, the name of the person to contact for additional information.
- (F) If there is an individual or organization available that provides free legal representation, the notice shall also advise the household of the availability of this service.

364.830: Notice of Increase

A Notice of Increase shall be sent to households when a change reported during the certification period results in an increase in the household's benefit level or no change in the household's benefit level. The Notice of Increase shall include the following information:

- (A) When the change does not result in an increase or a decrease in the household's monthly allotment, the notice shall inform the household that its monthly allotment will remain unchanged.

For households certified for three months or longer, notice shall be sent no earlier than the first day of the next to last month of certification or no later than the last day of the next to last month of certification.
